Boston, MA — Pop/folk icon Livingston Taylor and Katani of the Boston Pops performed last night at The Boston Home's (TBH) 125th Anniversary / Campaign for Care Gala Concert – to benefit care for adults with Multiple Sclerosis – in the Ballroom at UMass Boston Campus Center. Liz Walker emceed the event, and Boston City Councilor Maureen Feeney presented TBH President and CEO Marva Serotkin with a proclamation from the City of Boston. Trustee Arthur Hindman and Chairman of the Board Holly Burnes served as co-chairs of the event.

Founded in 1881, The Boston Home is a not-for-profit, specialized care residence for adults with advanced Multiple Sclerosis and other progressive neurological diseases. Celebrating its 125th year, The Boston Home is recognized as “the standard for care of adults with MS” by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. The Boston Home is the only facility of its kind in New England and one of only a few in the United States. The Boston Home Institute advances standards for care through research and education. The Boston Home Outreach Services provide therapeutic and social programs for outpatients.
